

Si Se Puede![®] Citizenship Network

The United Farm Workers Foundation (UFW Foundation) announces the release of the Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network. The Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network is a national network of organizations devoted to providing immigration services and information to farm workers.

The Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network will:

1. Build a national consortium of farm worker movement supporters and service providers.
2. Create a national brand and messaging strategy targeted at farm worker communities.
3. Help organizations build capacity to prepare for immigration reform implementation.
4. Provide technical support to organizations regarding farm worker specific issues.

Possible Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network Benefits:

1. Access to the national communications, outreach and branding strategy developed specifically for farm worker communities and geared around preparation for immigration reform.
2. Part of national Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network directory with centralized website and hotline.
3. Access to network branded community informational materials and media.
4. Access to technical assistance library with resources focused on farm worker communities.
5. And much more!

Learn how to become part of the Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network

Register to participate in a free informational webinar. The webinar will more extensively cover the UFW Foundation's long-term vision for the Si Se Puede, Citizenship Network, requirements for becoming an affiliate, cost and benefits.

Register to participate in a webinar by contacting: Luis Guerra, Immigration Implementation Coordinator at: lguerra@ufwfoundation.org or (619) 971-3291.